

All-State Career, Essington, PA

In accordance with The Pennsylvania Code § 1025.1 Accreditation and operational requirements of EMS Educational Institutes:

(9) The percentage of students for the previous 3 years who enrolled in and completed each EMS provider educational course offered by the institute; and

(10) The percentage of students for the previous 3 years, for each EMS provider educational course, who obtained EMS provider certification, and a percentage of the students who obtained certification after a first examination.

All-State Career School, Essington, PA EMS Department has verified the following EMS certification rates for the Emergency Medical Technician (Diploma) and Paramedic (Associate of Specialized Technology Degree) programs:

Emergency Medical Technician (Diploma)

Calendar Year	Number of Graduates	Percent Certified
2013	1	100%
2014	14	14%
2015	57	12%

Paramedic (Associate of Specialized Technology Degree)

Calendar Year	Number of Graduates	Percent Certified
2013	11	43%
2014	20	40%
2015	5	20%